Product Description

Customizable Flexible Multi-Color Led Neon Lights, Addressable Rgb Pixel Light Strip Set

Product Description:

One of the standout features of this LED Neon light product is its addressable neon lights. This feature allows users to control each individual light separately, providing a unique and dynamic lighting effect. It is perfect for creating eye-catching signs or displays that are sure to grab attention.

With input voltage options of 5V, 12V, and 24V, this LED Neon light product is versatile and can be used in a variety of settings. It can be powered by a standard USB port or a power supply unit, making it easy to use in any location. The 12V neon light option is a widely used voltage for automotive, marine, and outdoor lighting applications.

Another great feature of this LED Neon light product is that it is cuttable every 25mm. This means that users can easily customize the length of their lighting to fit their specific needs. Whether it is for a small sign or a large display, this LED Neon light product can be tailored to fit any project.

In summary, the LED Neon light product is a high-quality and versatile lighting solution that offers a long-lasting and customizable lighting experience. Its addressable neon lights and input voltage options make it perfect for a range of applications, while its cuttable unit option allows for easy customization. Whether it is for a commercial sign or a DIY project, the LED Neon light product is a great choice for anyone looking for a unique and dynamic lighting solution.
